

Reclaiming BIRTH CONFERENCE

SPONSORSHIP PACKAGE

Letter From the Founders

We want women to reclaim the rite of passage of childbirth and become fierce advocates for home births so that more women realize their strength, their power, their sacred blessing, and also reclaim their birth. Once we realize how capable our bodies are, our strength, we'll have the confidence to stand in this power, our intuition, our innate wisdom and confidently raise our children trusting in our ability to care for and nurture them, without external validation. We are all they need when we step into the wisdom of wise women. It's not just reclaiming birth, it's reclaiming motherhood, it's reclaiming ourselves as women and how we've been fearfully and wonderfully created.

We hope that women leave our conference with a strong understanding of physiological birth. That when led by their intuition to birth in their OWN power, birth is not only safe but the most transformative experience they will ever have.

*Kristen Nagle &
Christina Rigutto*
